4. PAYMENT TERMS

- Advance Payment — 20% of the agreed contract value is payable after the contract becomes active and applicable payment conditions are satisfied.
- Final Payment — The remaining 80% is payable after the agreed crop quantity is delivered/released and applicable inspection, acceptance or verification conditions are satisfied.
- Payment records, transaction references and payment status may be maintained digitally by AgriSure.

4. Any deduction, adjustment or change in payment should be supported by the agreed terms and recorded against the contract.

5. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

The Farmer shall prepare and deliver the contracted crop according to the agreed quantity, quality and delivery schedule.

The Buyer shall provide or confirm the agreed delivery location and receiving/acceptance process.

Shortage, visible quality issues or delivery discrepancies should be recorded through the AgriSure contract record or mutually documented.

Final acceptance may be recorded after inspection or verification according to the agreed requirements.

6. QUALITY AND INSPECTION

The crop shall meet the quality grade and specifications stated in this Agreement.

AgriSure may record crop updates, inspection information, supporting documents and status changes submitted by authorized users.

Where inspection is required, the inspection result shall be recorded against the relevant contract milestone.

Quality requirements should be specific and measurable where possible.

7. FARMER RESPONSIBILITIES

Provide accurate crop, cultivation and contact information.

Follow the agreed cultivation and quality requirements stated in this Agreement.

Provide timely crop progress, harvest and delivery updates when requested.

Deliver the contracted crop according to the agreed quantity, quality and schedule, subject to permitted exceptions.

8. BUYER / COMPANY RESPONSIBILITIES

Provide accurate company and procurement information.

Communicate agreed specifications, price, quantity and delivery requirements clearly.

Make payments according to agreed milestones and applicable contract conditions.

Receive and assess delivered crop according to the agreed acceptance and quality process.

9. CONTRACT CHANGES

Any change to price, quantity, delivery date, quality requirements or other material terms should be mutually agreed and recorded through an updated contract version or amendment in AgriSure. The latest accepted version shall be identified by its contract version number and timestamp.

10. CANCELLATION AND TERMINATION

Either party may request cancellation before fulfillment where permitted by the agreed contract conditions.

Cancellation after an advance payment or substantial performance may require settlement of obligations already incurred, subject to the agreed terms and applicable law.

AgriSure may record a contract as cancelled, terminated or disputed based on authorized actions and recorded evidence; platform status alone does not determine legal liability.

11. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party shall be treated as voluntarily breaching the Agreement for failure caused by events beyond reasonable control, such as severe natural disasters, government restrictions, war, widespread infrastructure failure or comparable events, provided the affected party communicates promptly and takes reasonable mitigation steps.

12. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The parties should first attempt to resolve disputes through communication and AgriSure's dispute/communication facilities. If unresolved, the parties may use an agreed dispute-resolution process or competent legal forum in accordance with applicable law.

13. DIGITAL RECORDS AND ACCEPTANCE

AgriSure may maintain electronic records of this Agreement, amendments, contract status, payment milestones, messages, uploaded documents and acceptance actions. Each party is responsible for protecting its account credentials and actions performed through its authorized account.

14. DATA AND DOCUMENTS

Information submitted for this contract may include identity, contact, crop, business, payment-status and contract information. Such information shall be handled according to the AgriSure platform's applicable privacy and data-handling provisions. Supporting documents should relate to the contract and be accurate.

15. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The information entered into this Agreement should be complete and accurate to the best of each party's knowledge.
2. No material term should be changed outside the recorded contract/amendment process without mutual agreement.
3. Each party shall comply with applicable laws, regulations and contractual obligations relevant to the transaction.
4. Failure to enforce a term on one occasion does not automatically waive that term for future circumstances.
5. If any provision is found unenforceable, the remaining provisions should continue to the extent permitted by applicable law.
6. This Agreement records the commercial understanding for the specified crop transaction. It should be reviewed for legal compliance before being used as a legally binding contract in a particular jurisdiction.
